Before you enter into an insurance contract, you have a duty to tell us anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that may affect our decision to insure you and on what terms.

You have this duty until we agree to insure you.

You have the same duty before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract.

You do not need to tell us anything that:

- · reduces the risk we insure you for; or
- · is common knowledge; or
- · we know or should know as a prudent insurer; or
- · we waive your duty to tell us about.

If you do not tell us something

If you do not tell us anything you are required to, we may proceed in line with one or more of the following options:

- · cancel your contract
- · refuse to pay a claim
- · reduce the amount we will pay you

If your failure to tell us is frNZDulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Average (Underinsurance)

Each of the sums insured within this Policy are declared to be separately subject to Average. Whenever a sum insured is declared to be subject to Average if such sum shall at the commencement of any Damage be less than the value of the insured item covered within such sum insured the amount payable by the Insurer in respect of such Damage shall be proportionately reduced.
